VENISE PRIMARY BEDROOM MOODBOARD

Picture ledges extend beyond the length of television to display family photos + decor.

Three walls painted Sparrow

Mural wall painted black to extend illusion

Dramatic floral mural as the main focal point and accent wall. Green velvet bedframe gives luxe feel.

Walnut side tables add a vintage Victorian touch. Circle mirrors w/ ornate details hang above. Gold and acrylic lamps.

Luxe stool in corner, styled with mirrored tray & candles.

New Cal King bed. Luxurious bedding with plush white comforter + weighted blankets for extra warmth.

The mural was the star of the show - and I wanted to ensure that every other design element was complementary to the rich colors it presented. Ultimately, the goal was to make this primary bedroom feel like a luxurious hotel. We splurged on the green velvet bed frame and linens in order to achieve that goal.

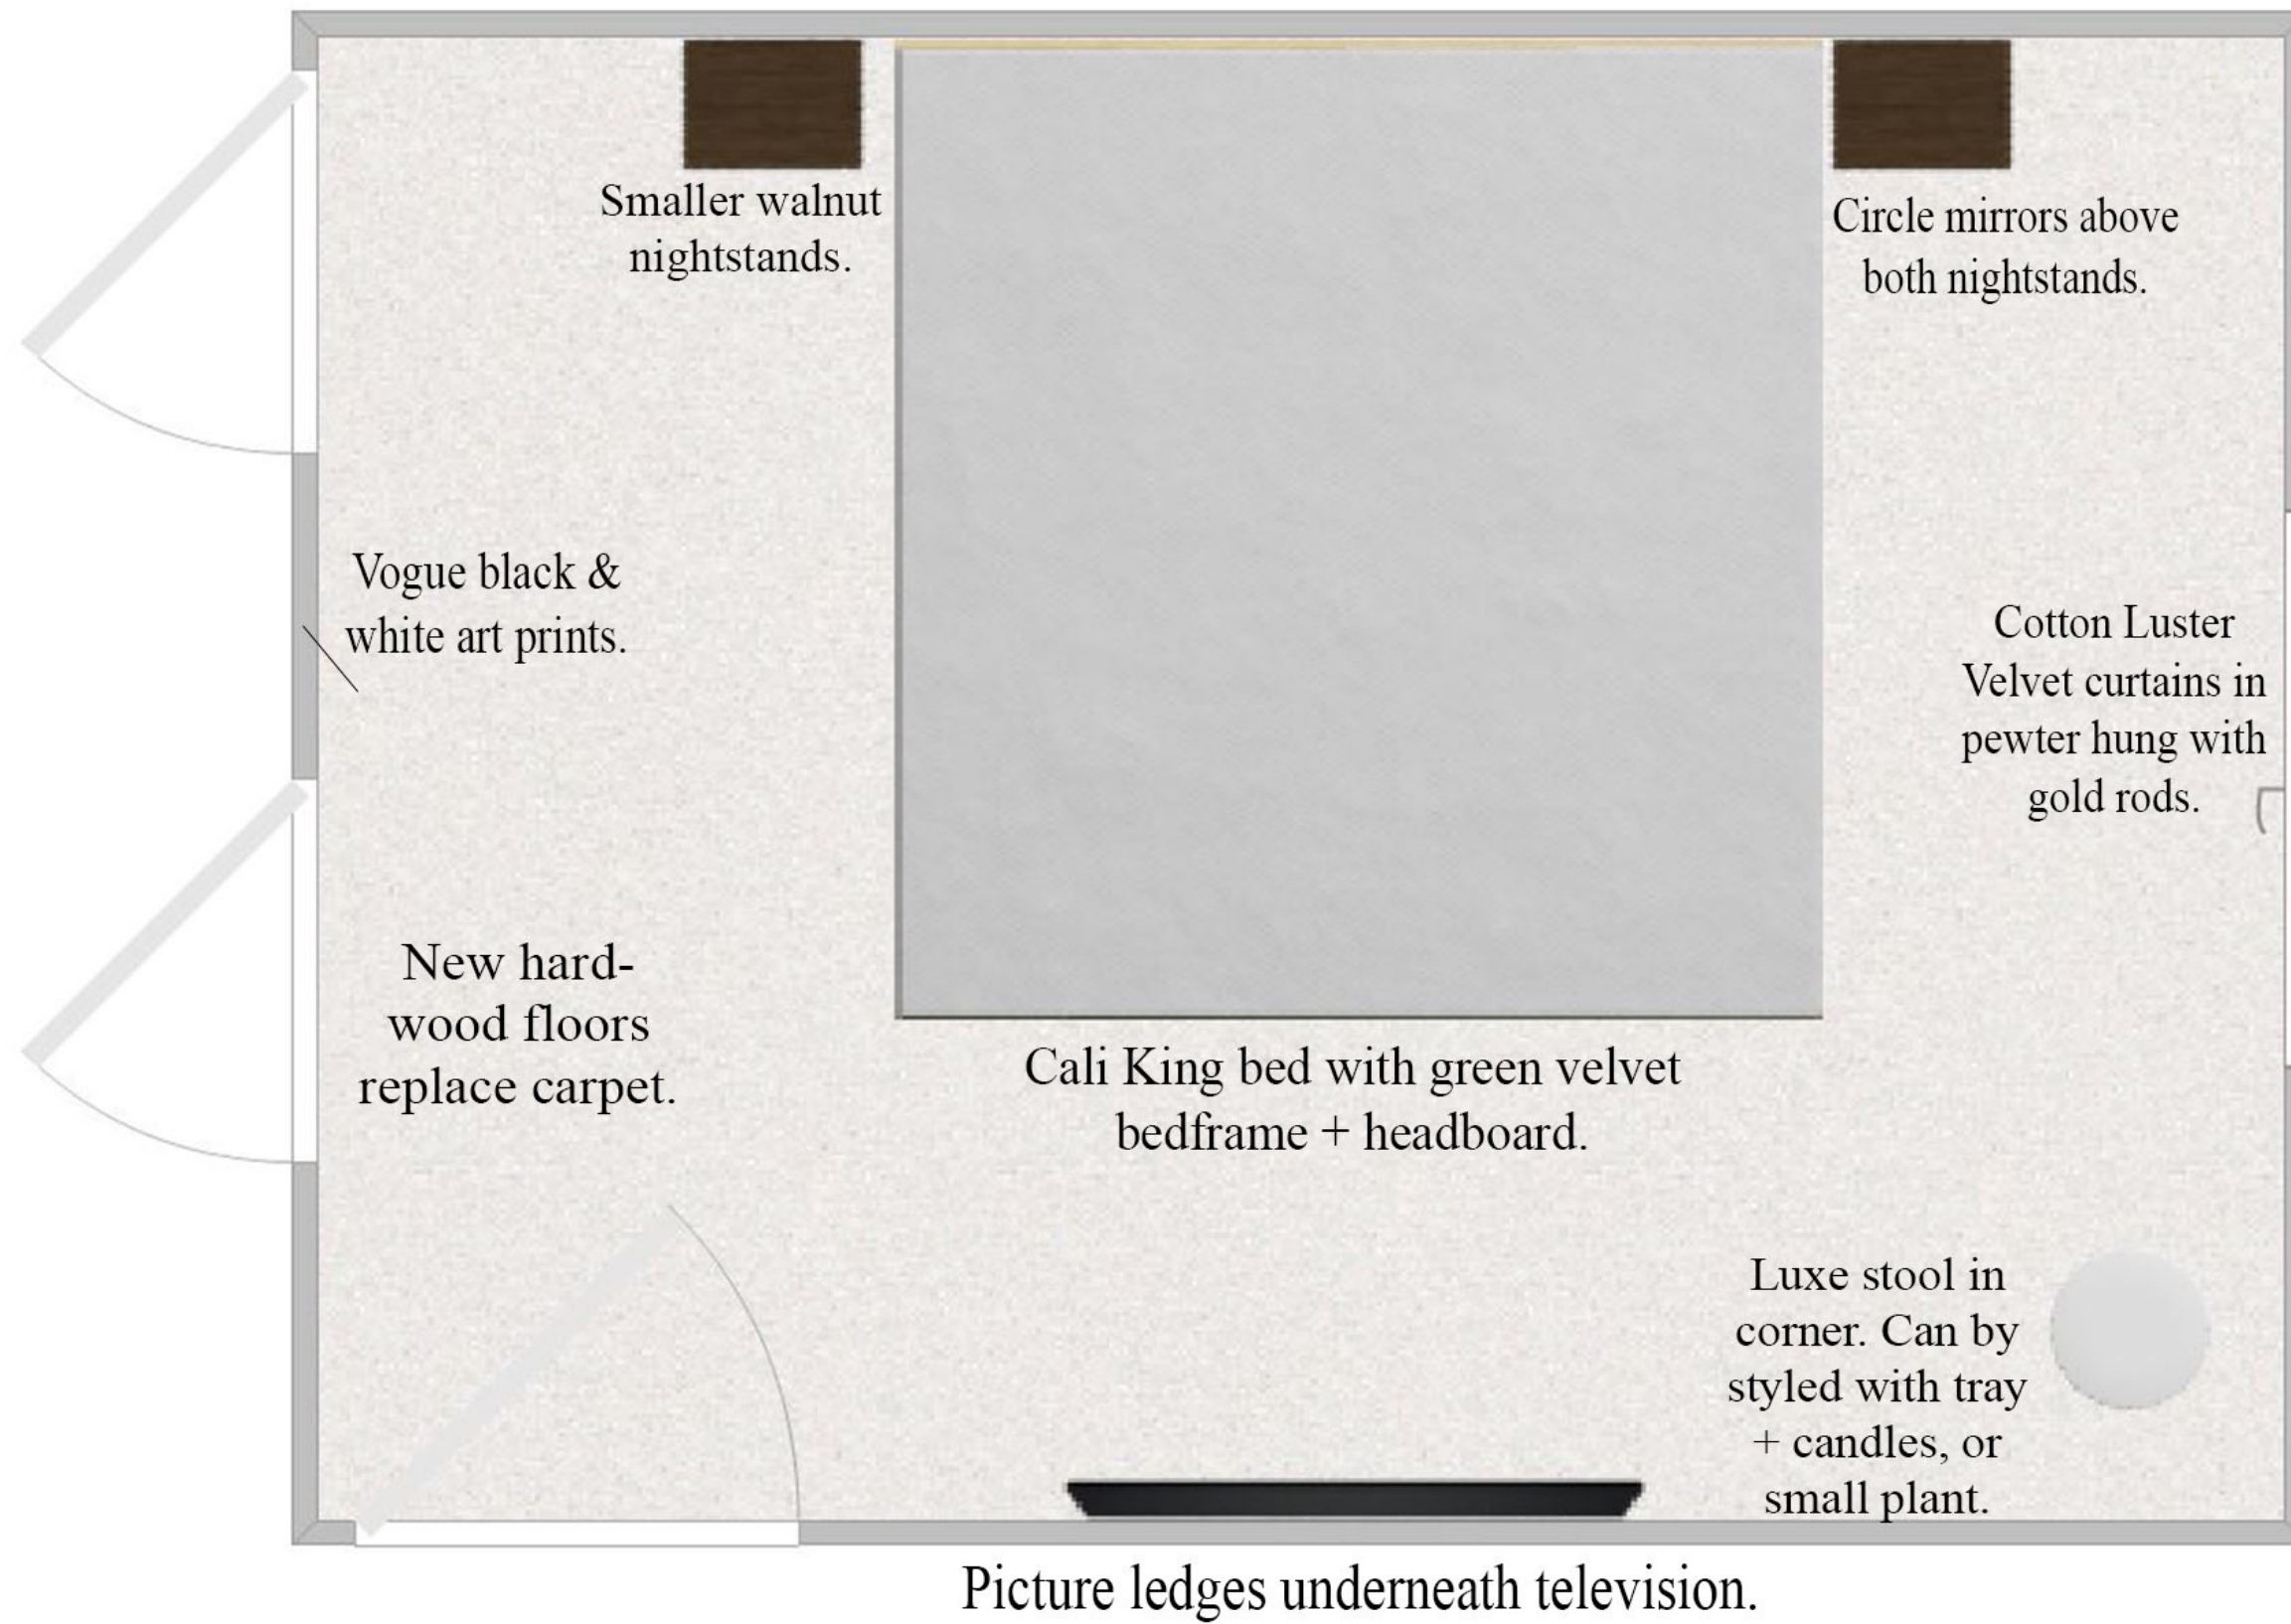

With a pitched ceiling, we utilized black paint to fill in the triangular gap, giving the illusion that the mural continued all the way to the ceiling. On the opposite wall was a very narrow picture ledge, installed under the mounted television. In a small space, every square inch needed to be maximized.

Dramatic floral mural is the focal point of the room and a 'wow' moment.

Luxurious details like velvet accent pillows, cashmere throw blankets, and gold mirrors made this primary bedroom feel like a fiotel retreat.
